ixigo Partners with CRED to Power Flight Bookings for the Newly Launched CRED IndusInd Bank RuPay Credit Card

New Delhi, 16th September 2025: ixigo, India's leading AI-based travel platform, has partnered with CRED to exclusively power flight bookings for CRED's newly launched CRED IndusInd Bank RuPay Credit Card.

Through this partnership, cardholders will now be able to seamlessly book flights within the CRED ecosystem with ixigo's robust flight inventory and technology powering the entire booking experience. This collaboration strengthens ixigo's vision of creating a connected, convenient, and digital-first travel ecosystem for Indian consumers.

Speaking on the announcement, Nitin Gurha, SVP Flight & Hotel Business, ixigo, said: "We are delighted to partner with CRED on this exclusive initiative. With CRED's premium member base and ixigo's deep expertise in powering seamless travel experiences, this collaboration will redefine how CRED members book flights and redeem points. The new card provides a range of exclusive benefits designed to cater to both frequent and occasional travellers, addressing the evolving needs of modern flyers who seek flexibility, convenience, and value. This partnership will expand our reach in the flight segment even further."

Akshay Aedula, Product and Growth, CRED, added, "With our new flights product powered by ixigo, discerning members can book trips anywhere in the world and count on CRED as their personal concierge - tracking check-in, gate updates, and baggage information seamlessly in the CRED app, so they can focus on the experience, not the logistics."

With this launch, ixigo further extends its footprint in powering travel solutions across diverse platforms, making flight booking accessible and frictionless for millions of Indian travellers.

Over the recent past, ixigo has introduced a range of innovative, AI-powered features across its flight verticals to enhance user experience and convenience. These include TARA - ixigo's AI-driven customer support, ixigo Assured Flex that makes tickets fully modifiable and refundable, Price Lock that allows users to lock fares for a small fee and avoid price fluctuations, and Flight Tracker Pro, which gives real-time updates on delays, terminals, gates, check-in counters, and baggage belts.
